Dearest Joey,

Hi! It's your Italian friend here!! How are you? It's always an happy day when I get your letter. Don't worry for your late, it's not a problem and I'm too much patiente for it.

Winter is started even if is not so cold; however I hate this kind of weather, I like sun and beaches but ... let's have the possibility to go to ski.

I'm sorry if I confused the relaxation between you and Liz, I really was thinking she was your girlfriend; Is Ann American? Where did you see Billy Joel? I like him, if I didn't wrong he sing songs like "This is the Time" or "Piano Man", I would like to see him in a concert, but he didn't come to sing in Italy.

I think I'll be in Liberty in 1995, this time I'm sure it's true, the reason is that it should be my last trip to America and I want to know my friend Joey.

Do you think we could go to see a Baseball game together if I'll stay 5-7 days?? Of course you can bring Ann or other girl you usually see, it's not a problem for me.

Last year you told me that the nearest airport to Liberty is KANSAS CITY AIRPORT right? Give me a confirm.

I don't know the author you told me, I mean Mr. Steinbeck and you are very kind to tell me that you'll unable to send some copies to me but it could be expensive so ~~if~~ I can buy them when I'll come over there.

Thanks for the article, it's interesting as usually by the way HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

even if im late, I wish you all the best and I send you a WARM Italian hug!

Your Friend Forever
