Dear Joey,

Hi, thanks for your letter. How are you? I was not very well today, I had to come home from college 'cos I felt so ill. I've spent the day in bed. Actually I've just got up. I hate being ill, but I got your letter today + it cheered me up!

I don't understand how you have been driving for 2 years. How old did you have to be to drive. We have to be 17 here, but in October 91 the law is changing in England and you have to be 18 to drive. I'm glad I'm driving now!

Thankyou for your postcards + baseball cards.
My sister wanted in America last year + she travelled through Kansas. Now my sister lives in Greece, she only moved there on Saturday, before that she lived in Spain. She likes to travel. In my holidays I went to Mallorca to stay with her. We had a brilliant time and got on really well, which is quite unusual for us. Now though I really miss her.

Do you ever watch the big baseball games? That's one thing I'd love to do.

We sometimes go to the cinema but not very often. The last film I went to see was 'When Harry met Sally' I loved that film. Have you seen it?

My name is Zoe, but it does rhyme with Joey. When I was younger everyone used to call me Joey, but now people call me Zed. I hate it!

Write soon Joey

All my love

Zoe XX

I've send over a couple of photos of me. I hate having my photo taken!
